People . . . the body and life of any institution. Students . . . a major part of life at Rollins — the give and take of friendships . . . experiences . . . thoughts. They leave their impression. And how often it is the little things that are remembered — things unimportant, perhaps, but remembered because of the spontaneity, or because for a time they were a way of life.

The candid eye of the Tomokan has tried to capture fleeting moments . . . to recall an instance . . . to remember and record.

A sun-drenched day — hindrance to the industrious, bliss to the sun worshipper; a stormy day — provocative of gloom, or the laughter of co-eds splashing barefoot through the puddles. The place might not be remembered; the faces, perhaps; the mood, yes.

. . . the desperate struggle to awake,

. . . the countless mealtime conversations,

. . . a restful,
casual
exchange,

. . . the contagious excitement
of a crowded grandstand,

. . . the temporary engrossment
in a long-awaited letter

. . . the intimacy of a special friendship . . . these are remembered.

Remembered . . . the near calamity,

. . . the wonderful escape of a clownish instance,

. . . a ridiculous fad,

. . . the quietude of dusk,

. . . the spell of an ending day,

. . . solitude.

Postscript: Have you ever stopped to think . . . How odd are shod the feet that trod?

DEDICATION

The Tomokan this year is dedicated to one who makes our common life at Rollins so good. In quiet ways of service, in her constant dependability, in her love and concern for our Chapel and hers, she ministers her convictions to us all. Some people make Rollins what it is by the vision they live. One of these is the faithful, determined lady, Miss Clara Adolphs.

Miss "A" came to Rollins and never left. She pledged Chi O in its early days on this campus and is still pledged to its ideals. She graduated in the class of '30 with President McKean. She worked first for President Hamilton Holt and, when the Chapel was built, became the first and only Chapel secretary.

Her work with us is her life and it is a generous life. She always has time to go the extra mile and perform the extra task. Miss Adolphs is one of our own, and yet she stands above us in her faith, good conscience and character.

PRESIDENT HUGH F. McKEAN

ADMINISTRATION

In 1885, the first institution of higher education was founded in Florida. "The name of the Corporation shall be Rollins College . . . Its object, which shall never be changed, shall be the Christian education of youth. . . ." In 1959 President Hugh F. McKean is working in accordance with the Board of Trustees to maintain a program devoted to the highest type of undergraduate liberal education.

The departments of the administration are varied and necessary to the functioning of the institution. The three deans are instrumental in guiding and advising the student body as a whole and as individuals in all phases of college life, including the social as well as the academic side. Mr. Schiller Scroggs, Dean of the College, works closely with President McKean, Mrs. Helen Watson, Dean of Women, and Mr. Dyckman Vermilye, Dean of Men, in maintaining a pleasant and helpful relationship with the students.

The Board of Trustees, under the able chairmanship of Mr. Miller Walton, is the policy-making division of the college. These men and women, drawn from various personal occupations, devote their time to further the educational plan of Rollins and create new improvements in the present program which emphasizes the individual student and his self-education. Their work lies in the directing and operating of Rollins College as a whole.

No institution could function with organization and ease without the various administrative departments. Mr. Lloyd L. Wagnon, the Assistant to the President and Acting Alumni Secretary, is the co-ordinator of the alumni and the undergraduates and the liaison officer between the alumni and the President's office. Dr. Alfred J. Hanna, the Vice-President, strives for the continuance of college development. Mr. John Tiedtke, the Vice-President and Treasurer, is concerned with the financial business of the college. Mr. Frederick H. Ward, as Comptroller and Assistant Treasurer, checks income and expenses against the budget. Mr. Malcolm F. Scott, the Acting Director of Admissions, has the pleasure of selecting the prospective or hopeful future Rollins students. Mr. Richard S. Wolfe, the Registrar, is instrumental in tabulating the students' academic schedules to make certain they are fulfilling the college requirements. Mrs. Alice M. Hansen, the Head Librarian, is accountable for the purchasing, care of, and proper cataloging of books, and the supervision of the students' usage of the library facilities. Miss Emily R. Merrill, the Acting Director of the Placement Bureau, aids and assists the students seeking employment as undergraduates and as graduates. Mr. Joseph Justice, the Director of Athletics, is responsible for directing the physical education program in addition to the training and coaching of teams for intramural and intercollegiate competitive athletics. Mr. Vladimir Mandl, Director of the News Bureau, collects and distributes for publication information concerning Rollins. Mr. George C. Cartwright, the Superintendent of Buildings, maintains the interior and exterior of all buildings and all college property. Mr. Harold Mutispaugh, the Purchasing Agent, prepares specifications and requests for bids on supplies needed by various departments of the college. Miss Chloe M. Lyle, the Cashier, is responsible for the intake of money due the college from the students.

These administrators, together with their staffs, create the efficiency of organization necessary to the functioning of Rollins College as an institution of higher education.

COWBOY GARB WAS TOP STYLE AS ROLLINS CIRCLED THE WEST.

THE PI PHI'S creoted a winner with the best decorated girls' booth. Not only was it attractive outside, it was fun inside. The boys chuckled os good notured Pi Phi's brovely withstood the ossault af accurote aim and flying pies.

The Wild West set the theme for the 1959 Fiesta, and for three days the Rollins campus reverted back to the frontier. The Midway resembled a western town complete with covered wagons, a jail, and saloons, but it was not without traces of carnival attractions. As Fiesta is a money-making project for student scholarships, the entire campus vied for inventive ways of combining profit with fun. The faculty contributed with Tortilla Flat, a traditional supper South-of-the-Border way with President McKean presiding as chef. Raffle tickets were sold with the temptation of a TV set for the winner. Friday dawned on a hectic day of fun beginning with a field day. Competition was stiff among the social groups, but Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Nu proved themselves the most agile and athletic. A Western Barbecue fortified the contestants and paved the way for the evening's Western Stomp. The American Legion Hall rocked to the tune of a local combo and the entire "westernized" campus gleefully partaking of the free refreshments. Saturday morning found the streets lined with spectators long awaiting the Fiesta Parade, postponed two days earlier because of wild weather. Horses and wagons broke the chain of elaborate floats constructed with a frontier theme in mind. The decision of the judges proclaimed the winning floats to be those of Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Nu. In the afternoon the scene was set for Fashion Frontiers, a combination style show and beauty pageant, where lovely Lynda Bridgers won the day as Miss Rollins. The climax of the weekend arrived with the Fiesta dance. Western duds were renounced in favor of more formal attire as the Bahia Temple resounded with the fabulous music of Buddy Morrow leading his Night Train Orchestra. Festivities were halted for a short while with the anticipated announcements of winners for the various events. Among those not already mentioned were trophies for the best decorated booths on the Midway which went to Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Nu and for those booths making the biggest profits, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Delta Chi. Finally the king and queen of Fiesta weekend were crowned, Ted Murray and Patty Boyd. A dance honoring the royal couple followed and all joined in until the 1959 Fiesta was brought to a close with the traditional strains of "Goodnight Sweetheart."

SIGMA NU'S HOTEL WAS THE MOST ARTISTIC.

THE FACES OF THE 1959 Fiesta Committee mirror the success of the Wild West days. FOX DAY

THE FOX'S VISIT IS ANNOUNCED BY HIS GOOD FRIEND.

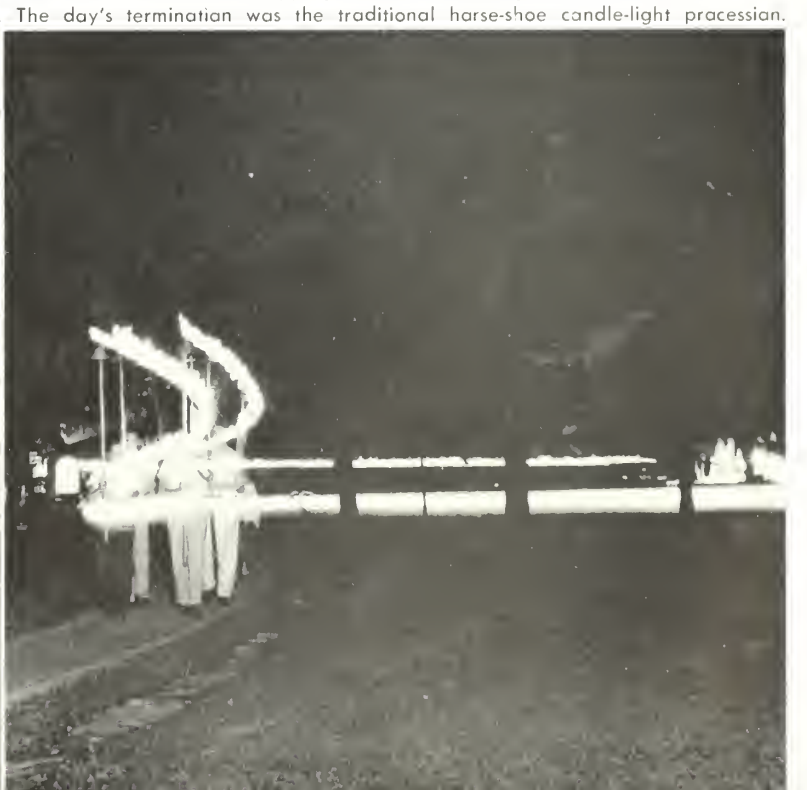
UP, DOWN, OR UNDER . . . IT MUST EE HERE SOMEWHERE.

SPUR SAYS THE FOX SAYS HE'S HERE.

A typical end-ot-the-term day dawned, but when the Sandspur proclaimed in screaming headlines, "Fox Pays Surprise Visit Today," the campus became a festive site. The main entertainment was a treasure hunt. For those who were lucky enough to solve the clues an additional gamble for a monetary prize was made available. The lucky winner was John Harkness.

The Beanery was transformed at lunchtime into a hand-clapping, teet-stomping hour as the Navy "Oil-drum" band provided a genuine jam session. Everyone then adjourned to the Sandspur Bowl where a faculty-student softball game claimed the afternoon hours. A square dance slimaxed the festivities for Fox Day, succeeded by the beautiful tradition of a candlelight service in the Chapel for the Rollins family.

A SPECIAL FEATURE was the ail drum band from Puerto Rica which braught abaut enthusiastic hand clapping and table standing. Faad was a minar aspect of the noan meal and that "different sound" is still being talked abaut. The day's terminatian was the traditional harse-shoe candle-light pracessian.



ORIENTATION

IT'S JUST TOO MUCH for one to participate strenuously in a skating party at the end of a bustling first week. Millions of those tiny energy cells are burned up after rolling around the rink and it makes one so tired! How's a quick nap and pleasant dreams? Dreams of shoes, pocketbooks, shoes, freshman beanies, shoes, skates, shoes, shoes. . . .

OUR MEN MAKE A FAVORABLE FIRST IMPRESSION.

WHY ALL SMILES? IT'S A HECTIC PROCEDURE!

IT'S A WOMAN'S PRIVILEGE TO STOP WORK AND CHAT.

WIDE-EYED, OPEN-EARRED newcomers to the campus listen attentively to their group leader and try to absorb every minute detail. Next a tour of the library.

Probably one of the most hectic and fun-loving times of college days is that first week, which is called orientation. It is during this period that freshmen and transfer students become acquainted with Rollins and its ways . . . without the upperclassmen. From the time that they are greeted by members of the Orientation Committee to the time that classes start, they find very few moments for themselves. In these rare instances thoughts are turned toward unpacking, meeting neighbors, and running into Winter Park for some forgotten item.

Small groups, headed by members of the student body, are formed and continue to meet once a week during the entire fall term. During the first week the new Rollinsites take part in a varied program. Included in their schedule is a period of testing and special guidance in which they confer with their faculty advisers concerning courses to be taken, credit hours, and temporary plans for the next few years. Parties which entail square dancing and roller skating are on the roster. Orientation week is concluded with a family picnic on the lakefront, at which time the faculty and the students come together to start the school year.

BRIGHT SKIRTS SWISH AND HEELS TAP AS LIGHT-HEARTED FOLKS GAILY PROMENADE AROUND THE CENTER PATIO.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Each year invents new problems and provides new outlooks. Whether this is applied to life or the yearly dilemma of the Student Council at Rollins, it's equally apropos. All difficulties wend their way to the Executive Council, President Len Wood, Vice-President Dick Mansfield, and Secretary Joan Brand, through group representatives who voice the opinions of the student body. Differences and grievances are aired, dispersed, and punctuated by the resounding thud of the gavel. Many difficulties come under the jurisdiction of the seven standing committees, which are the Student-Faculty Disciplinary Committee, the Student-Faculty-Trustee Committee, the Social Committee, and the Sub-committees which take care of the Pelican, campus improvements, and traffic problems. This year the Social Committee worked to capacity in the initiation and planning of six all-College dances. The first one found the more Bohemian Rollinsites dancing in the atmospheric setting of Greenwich Village. One of the annual feats of Council is their sponsorship of the Fiesta weekend, the profits of which go toward scholarships.

Ably manipulating the synthesis of campus life in the solving of problems and the promotion of activities, with the advice of the Student Deans, are the council members themselves. Starting with the first row and going left to right they are Bill Ward, Independent; Tony Toledo, Lambda Chi Alpha; Purr Ransom, Independent; Richard Ostergren, Independent; Beverly Millikan, Pi Beta Phi; Bruce Aufhammer, Sigma Nu; Celia Salter, Phi Mu; Jim McDermott, Kappa, Alpha Order; Phyllis Zatlin, Independent; Jeff Lavaty, X Club; Martha England, Kappa Alpha Theta; Valerie Baumrind, Chi Omega; Gail Sutcliff, Alpha Phi; Mary Mudd, Kappa Kappa Gamma; and not pictured, Ginger Cornell, Gamma Phi Beta, Alan Coleman, Delta Chi; Lynn Pflug, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

LEN WOOD, STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT

ANITA STEDRONSKY, CORRESPONDING SECRETARY; DICK MANSFIELD, VICE-PRESIDENT; JOAN BRAND, SECRETARY; LES SLADKUS, COMPTROLLER.

MEMBERS OF THE Student-Faculty-Trustee Cammittee, a liaisan between students and administratian, are Tam DiBacca, Jaan Brand, Jaan Abendrath, Larry Hitner, chairman, and Bill Dunnill (nat pictured).

DENNY LEARNED, VAL BAUMRIND, AND HELEN CARRELL, chairman, compose the Student-Faculty Disciplinary Cammittee with Jaan Brand and Bab Schermer.

CHAPEL

When approaching the Rollins campus, no matter from which direction, the first thing one notices is the stately tower of the Knowles Memorial Chapel. Its modern Spanish lines reflect the warmth and serenity which is characteristic of the services that are held every Sunday morning during the school year. Leading the students and members of the community in their religious life is Dean Theodore S. Darrah, who is a prominent and well-loved figure of the college. Assisting Dean Darrah as secretary of the Chapel is Miss Clara Adolfs, while Mrs. Catharine Gleason, renowned organist, accompanies the Chapel Choir, which is under the direction of Mr. Robert Hufstader. The students of Rollins have an opportunity to participate in most of the Chapel activities and functions, strengthening the bond that joins the spiritual life with the intellectual and social. At Chapel services one is welcomed by student ushers, who seat the guests, distribute programs, and pass the collection plates. Following Sunday worship is the After-Chapel Club, which invites distinguished guests, often Rollins professors, to speak informally on a topic in their specialized field. Another student organization is the Chapel Staff, having as its main function the organization and carrying out of all Chapel activities. The biggest project of the year is the drive during the Winter term, the purpose of which is to collect money for needy students and the support of our adopted children in Germany and Greece. Aside from the regular Sunday morning services, there are evening vesper services, short fifteen-minute gatherings, held every Tuesday and Thursday night in the Frances Chapel. Students as well as faculty speak on these occasions, which are planned and directed by members of the Vespers Committee. Rollins also attempts to serve the community through the Chapel by way of the Community Service Club, whose membership consists of any interested Rollins student.

DEAN OF THE CHAPEL, T. S. DARRAH

MEMBERS WHO CARRY OUT THE FUNCTIONS OF THE CHAPEL STAFF ARE Mae Cady, Jim Banatis, Larry Hitner, Dean Darrah, Kathy Rhoads, D. A. Sharp, Dr. Waite, Susan Barclay, Dottie Englehardt, Dr. Margenroth, Barbara Warks, Phyllis Zatlin, Anita Tanner, Tom DiBacco, Gary Gabbard, Lee Martindale.

MANY VOICES RISE IN SONG as the Rollins choir practices under the expert direction of Mr. Hufstader. On Sunday mornings, at Christmas time, and during the Bach Festival, particularly, the Chapel is filled with the beautiful synthesis of their voices.

THE CHAPEL USHERS, headed by Gary Gobbard, conduct people to their seats and take up the collection of the Sunday morning services. They are also present at convocations and other special services throughout the year. Members are Bob MacCuspie, Gary Gabbord, Jerry Beets, Tom Dolan, Bill Kintzing, Bill MacLeod, Don Allen, John Henricksen, Ted Takahashi, Jim Bonatis, Bill Dunnill, and Pete Kimball.

VESPER COMMITTEE MEMBERS are Moe Cady, D. A. Sharp, Dick Mansfield, Linda Walowitz, Tony Toledo, Kathy Rhoads, and George Van Riper.

AFTER CHAPEL CLUB is held on Sunday morning and has as its guest speakers members of the faculty. Coffee is served as Dr. Hamiltan prepares to speak.

Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, a national publication, each year recognizes outstanding students from approximately 750 colleges and universities. Campus nominating committees are instructed to consider, in making their selection, the student's scholarship; his participation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities; his citizenship and service to the school; and his promise of future usefulness. The organization awards each member a certificate of recognition, a listing in the annual publication and provides a placement service to assist seniors and graduates seeking employment. This year Who's Who chose nine Rollins seniors for national listing. They are Joan Abendroth, president of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Zeta Alpha Epsilon, and a member of Libra; Moe Cody, secretary of ODK, recipient of Oslo Summer Scholarship, and member of varsity crew; Boyd Coffie, president of the X Club, advertising manager of the Sandspur, and member of the varsity baseball squad; Tom DiBacco, president of both Rollins Players and Theta Alpha Phi, member of Key Society, past editor of the Sandspur, and president of ODK and Phi Society; Dottie Englehardt, president of Chapel Staff and Senior Class and member of Libra; Larry Hitner, editor-in-chief of 1959 Tomokan, treasurer of Delta Chi and member of ODK; D. BACKSTAGE, a drama of ca-ardination is enacted, starting hours before the curtoin rises: wordrobe preparation, set placement, make-up, lighting, cues all lead up to the final call, "on stage!"

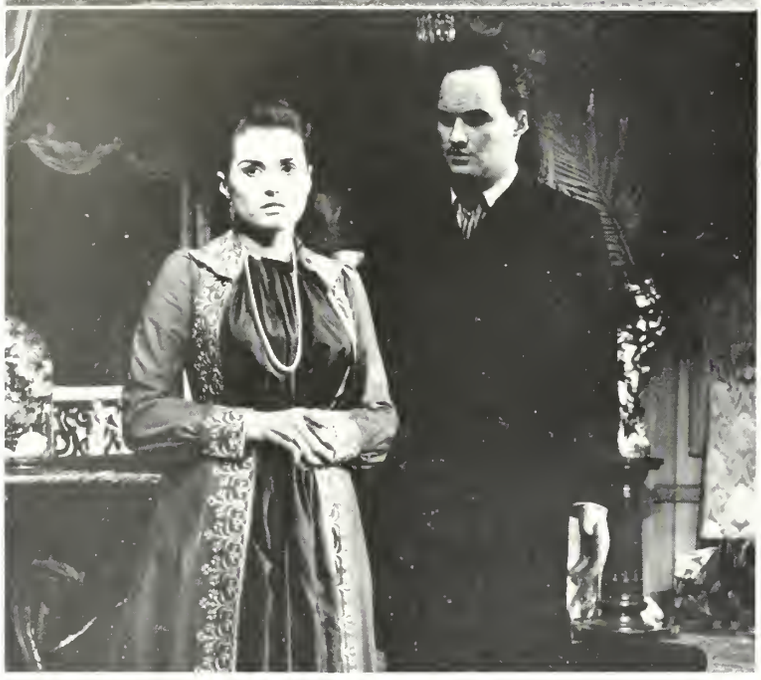
ONE WEEK, WILL IT EVER BE RIGHT?

THEN OUT OF A HAT COMES THAT HAPPY FIRST NIGHT!

The Rollins Players presented a season of European classics this year, prompted by last year's successful season of American Classics. After a stupendous opener, Teahouse of the August Moon, theatre goers may have felt that the brilliance and artistry of the tale of Okinawan life would overshadow the remaining productions. Their fears were quickly put to rest by the arrival of the First Lady of the Norwegian stage, Miss Tore Segelcke. The performance as Nora in Ibsen's A Doll's House was an experience not soon forgotten by those who saw her nor by the students who worked with her. The unusual combination of Puccini's Fra Angelica and Shaw's Androcles and the Lion was the third production of the '59 season. Effective as a curtain-raiser to the rollicking farce-satire of Androcles, Fra Angelica thrilled audiences with professional young voices. No survey of European drama would be complete without the Russian master, Chekov. The Three Sisters, a poignant study of life, was definitely a high spot in ART history. Complete unity of production, ensemble acting, and direction breathed life into this play "where nothing really happens." An Italian Straw Hat, an hilarious spoof on all farce, closed out another successful season at the ART. Bravo, Rollins Players!

Highlighting the Fred Stone Theater presentations were two plays, followed by the innovation of a panel-audience discussion. The dissection of Ionesco's The Lesson and Millay's Aria da Capo proved to be an exciting example of the real use of a hallmark of Rollins' experimental theatre, the FST.



RENOWNED ACTRESS, Tore Segelcke, os Noro, illuminotes on eorly scene of A Doll's House, before the plots of Krogstaad (below) erose her hoppy smile. As the one production of the yeor in which townspeople porticipote, A Doll's House brought to light mony tolented octors. Ably supporting Miss Segelcke were Gerord Gough, Clint Trowbridge, Kothie Rhoads, Borboro Biggs, ond Chuck Morley. In o beautifully outhentic Victorion setting, the brilliont tolents of Miss Segelcke were oppropriotely fromed. Moy the ART see more of this greot stor!

FRA ANGELICA, o beoutiful ond touching opero climoxed by o mirocle, showed ART oudiences excellent singing ond excellent octing. Led by the exceptionol voice of M. Z. Rowe, the chorus of nuns gripped ond held the oudience, which responded with o stonding ovotion. The stylizotion of setting ond costuming effectively produced the desired effect in this joint effort of theotre ond music deportments.

As in Shakespeare's day, a white flag was unfurled on top of the Strong Hall patio to announce the advent of the thirteenth annual program of Shakespeareana. An expectant group of spectators crowded into the theatre after paying their admission to the Orange girls of one quotation in exchange for a flower, while Elizabethan music lent an atmosphere similar to that of the Globe Theatre. The blare of the trumpet by the herald, Bruce Hasnas, rent the air, calling the attention of the audience to an afternoon of songs, scenes, and soliloquies. Mistress of the Revels, Mrs. Nina Dean, introduced the program which began with Steve Kane's interpretation of a soliloquy from Richard III.

SHAKESPEAREANA

The balcony scene from Romeo and Juliet followed with Bill Smith acting as Romeo, while Joan Brand played Juliet. Tina Levin and Mr. Ken Pahel demonstrated an Elizabethan dance preceding the wooing scene from Henry I with Norman Boone as Henry, Clelia Gonaza as Katherine, and Marion Love as the maid-in-waiting. Mr. Robert Chase portrayed Malvolio in an amusing scene from Twelfth Night with the backing of Sara Reed as Maria, Tom DiBacco as Sir Toby, and Bob Bunim as Sir Andrew. Mr. Arthur Wagner and Mr. Ken Pahel recalled the present with "Brush Up Your Shakespeare" from Kiss Me Kate. This brought the famous Shakespeareana to a close, but not to an end, for it has become a tradition at Rollins and something to remember.

For we're the class of '62 ond os our friends, we wont you!!!"

FRESHMAN SHOW

The green freshmen had their first opportunity to display their many talents in the Frosh production entitled "Kaleidoscope." Bubbling over with precious abilities such as singing, dancing, acting, stage directing, script writing, and taking care of the technicalities, these guys and gals embarked on the difficult task of organizing a show that would top all. The first step taken towards their goal was the assembling and the organization of these versatile freshmen. Direction was capably handled by three ambitious directors, and the theme, "Kaleidoscope," was chosen to insure that every freshman, who so desired, would be given the opportunity to perform in one way or another.

The title of the show within the show was "Variations." The first act took place at rehearsal for the New York scene. Among the most original performances enacted were a Charleston number by the "Perfect Young Freshmen," who were actually freshwomen; and two intoxicated musicians who, though confounded by a switch in instruments, played a fine duet with sax and drums. "Many a New Day" was sung by the leading lady, who was grateful to her director for placing her name "ever so slightly above" the leading man's name. The second scene of the first act was set in Nassau, where many lively numbers as "Banua" and "Jamaica Farewell," yes, even in Nassau, were performed.

The final act found "Variations" opening in the seductive atmosphere of a Parisian café, and there "Kaleidoscope" ended with the romantic strains of "La Vie En Rose."

DR. WERNHER VON BRAUN

A "Future Expedition to Mars" was the subject under discussion at the thirty-second annual edition of the Animated Magazine. President Hugh McKean opened the Magazine by presenting an editor's comment on the guest speakers, four of the nation's top rocket experts connected with the Development Operations Division of Redstone Army Ballistic Missile Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama. The first speaker, Mr. Eberhard F. M. Rees, gave preliminary facts of our knowledge of Mars concerning conditions and statistics. He stressed that men cannot live in that atmosphere without the aid of breathing apparatus. Dr. Wernher Von Braun, the main speaker, then told of the possibility of a trip to Mars in the near future and the problems that would confront the first men to land on Mars' forbidding surface. He explained many of the difficulties of such a trip, among which the time element and the tremendous weight of the necessary fuel were prime factors.

Mr. Arthur Rudoloph described the space ships which would probably be used for the trip. In addition to a ground vehicle and passenger and cargo ships, a powerful ship will be needed to break away from the earth's gravity. The final speaker, Mr. Fritz Mueller, told of the navigation and communication problems facing the modern scientist in relation to the Martian expedition. He remarked that today we have an advantage over Columbus because we can see our destination. The speeches were followed by a brief question and answer period, which satisfied the audience's curiosity on many aspects of the proposed trip. The Magazine was concluded by Dr. Edwin Granberry's "30."

Following the presentation of the Magazine, a reception was given in Fox Hall at which Dr. Von Braun and Mr. Mueller held an informal discussion concerning additional problems of a "Future Expedition to Mars."

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The seven national sororities of Rollins form a wheel which keeps the mechanics of sorority life running smoothly. Acting as the hub of this wheel is the Panhellenic Council, which sees that national and local rules are observed. The three leaders are D. A. Sharp, president; Val Greene, vice-president; and Lloyd Hoskins, secretary, while the representatives are Debbie Williams, Alpha Phi; Barbie Works, Chi Omega; Sue Barclay, Gamma Phi Beta; Carol Lindgren, Kappa Alpha Theta; Corky Row, Pi Beta Phi; and Jody Boulware, Phi Mu. A yearly project is a workshop during which other Panhellenic members join Rollins to discuss ideas and improvements.

Interfraternity Council, similar in many ways to Panhellenic, has as its leaders Dick D'Alemberte, president; Larry Lavalle, vice-president; and Pete Kimball, recording secretary. Striving to promote good relations and cooperation among fraternities are its members: Gary Gabbard, X Club; Larry Lavalle, Sigma Nu; Gardner Horton, Kappa Alpha Order; Pete Kimball, Delta Chi; Wally Ramsey, Lambda Chi Alpha; and Roger Chadwick, Tau Kappa Epsilon. In order to stimulate scholastic enthusiasm, I.F.C. presents a trophy to the fraternity that has achieved the highest grade average during the year. Meetings are held monthly with the Dean of Men as adviser.

Greekdom at Rollins . . .

An integral part of college life that creates a pattern for lifetime memories and friendships.

The hours of work, the variety of parties, the serenades, the frustations, the elations, the comradeship . . . all meld into a background of memories on which the eye of the Tomokan has randomly focused.

An occasional tumult in Panhellenic

the picture of an industrious pledge class creating a theme . . .

The momentary exhaustion of spirited athletes catching a breath before re-entering the intramural fray . . .

The quiet of a pledge meekly following an active's command . . .

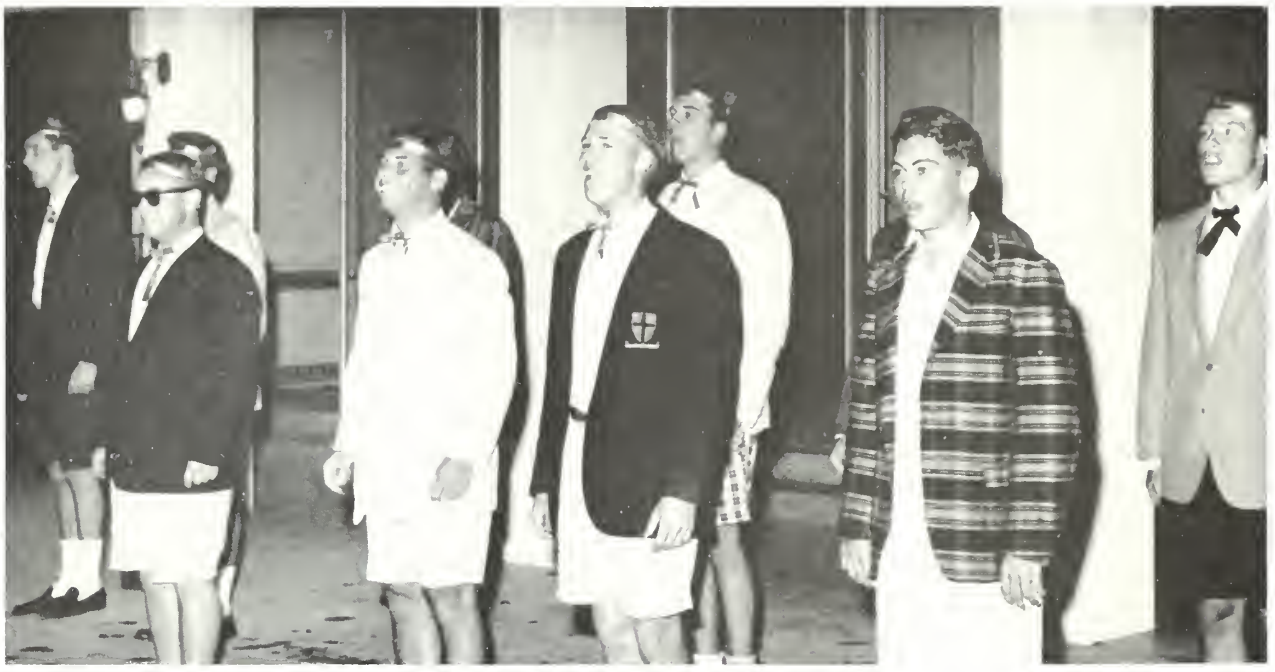
These focused glimpses are enlarged in the exuberance of a rollicking fraternity song.



An occasional pledge duty, "We're all in our places with bright shiny faces . . ."

replaced by countless hours spent in sharing interests . . .

aside from a few in

THE ALPHA PHI ROCKETTES BELT OUT A SONG FOR THE RUSHEES.

And here we have the Alpha Phi's . . . the ever popular Phi's, who still drive to classes and walk to Robbie's (closer, you know!) "Couth" was the cry this year while "Step on it!" reigned as the password to ACOP meetings . . . New arrivals on the scene included Mrs. Silvers, the likeable landlady and many silver and burgandy lightbulbs proclaiming the domain of the group to all who circle Holt House Drive . . . cars, cars, and more cars . . . Song practice, and Mary meant everyone better be there . . . The Phi nightclub and casino went full blast . . . steak served in the main dining room while Debbie and Val entertained in the lounge with piano Duos . . . bologna and cheese served at this one . . . the card room was filled with the Big Four constantly bidding while the squirrels held contests on the second floor. Daytime activities at the Club included swimming, supervised by a lifeguard who stayed in the house, badminton and ping pong and an occasional sunbath. Orchids go to Suzanne Wheeler who entered beauty contests . . . Rigg who edited the Sandspur . . . Debbie who presided and sported around the Tomokan . . . Val who served as Pan Hell Veep . . . Dale who was a wonderful hostess for out-of-town teams . . . and Elena who always moved to have another Cocktail Parteeee.

The Phi's benefited many things this year . . . the college with the successful Christmas Dance . . . the Silver and Burgandy Ball . . . the National Cardiac Fund with the sponsorship of the King and Queen of Hearts Contest, also a success . . . and the X Club shield which was a guest of the group for many days until rescued after a valiant defense by Commanding Generals Bonnie and Sally.

JOE AND HUGH TAKE TIME OUT TO MAKE SOME CHANGES.

Although the 1958 Soccer season was disappointing to students, as well as to coaches and players, the much-needed teamwork and experience were realized. The team ended the season with a dismal 1 win, 5 loss record but remained spirited and aggressive throughout the schedule. Several close games were lost by a plague of injuries that seemed to have set in from the opening day.

Center forward, Denny Learned, again dominated the scoring column, while Larry Hoyt turned in a fine performance on defense. At the close of the season, Learned and top playmaker, Galanté, were honored by being selected for the 1958 All-State team.

Four Freshmen found spots in the starting lineup this year. The halfback slots were solidly filled by Jeff Sellon and Bill Tone while left inside and right wing belonged respectively to Ed Leal and Enrique Huber. A fifth newcomer, Bob Ibarguen, ably manned several vacancies caused by injuries.

The one win Rollins chalked up was the campaign opener with the University of Florida. In a bruising game sparked by Denny Learned and Desi Csonger, the Tars finally snapped the "Fightin' Gators'" three-year winning skein. A night game with Stetson was a "first" in Florida soccer, while the trip to Nassau furnished a real international flavor to the autumn sport. The Nassau venture saw the Tars playing a close game in the first half with Ted Takahashi's goal being the lone Rollins point of the afternoon.

In conference play, the much-battered Blue and Gold pulled a complete reverse from last year's championship team by taking it on the chin from every league opponent. The familiar phrase, "Wait 'til next year!" took on real meaning as winter drew near.

With only four Seniors on the squad this year, the Tars should be a formidable foe in the next few years. The large group of underclassmen should help mentors Hugh McKean, Herb Hellwege, and Joe Justice produce a winning team very soon.

The loss of All-American pivot Chick Bezemer through graduation last year left a wound in the 1958-59 Rollins Basketball team that was never to quite heal. But the season also found some glaring weaknesses that go beyond the loss of one man. For one, the Tars initiated the season with nine consecutive road games and lost eight of them. Secondly, having no home court, Rollins is immediately at a two-point disadvantage. Lastly, with only two men 6 ft. 4 in. or better, the squad found it difficult to compete on even terms during a large part of the schedule. Probably the biggest single surprise of the season was the fantastic playing of Guard Boyd Coffie. Doing everything from playmaking to rebounding to scoring, Boyd closed out his college basketball career with a 20.2 point-per-game year and was chosen for the Florida All-State Team. In addition to Coffie, this campaign marks the end of the line for seniors Lee Martindale, Jack Ruggles, Gary Gabbard, and Bob Schuder. Their fine play over the past four years has done much to further the quality of Rollins basketball and they will be missed a great deal. All in all, considering its handicaps, the Tars did pretty well. After those first eight losses, the hoopsters were to play close to .500 ball for the rest of the season so their 8-16 record might not be as bad as appears. In any event, there's always next year!

WATER SKIING

Having capped the 1958 Cypress Garden's Collegiate competition in the combined men's and women's divisions, this year's Rollins College Water-Skiing team was out to prove again that they are one of the top groups in Florida. To recap last season, the squad brought home six trophies, four of which were won by the women in the slalom and trick categories. This showing, incidentally, stamped them as the number one college team in the state. Placed by Perry Ellwood, the men followed up with their trophies in trick competition also.

Under the able tutelage of former National Skiing Champion Henry Suydam, returning lettermen Susie Morgenthaler, Judy Earle, Mary Mudd, Lloyd Hoskins, Bruce McEwan, Bob MacCuspie, Tom Miller and Barth Engart comprise the nucleus of competition for this year's campaign. Newcomers Ken Fox and June Worthington strengthened the team considerably since such stars as Lynn Kaelber, Bert Morris and Perry Ellwood were lost through 1958 graduation. With the great number of returning lettermen plus fine new talent, at press time, it promised to be a winning spring for skiing at Rollins.

CREW

COACH BRAD TAKES A SQUINT AT HIS BOYS.

After a disappointing '58 season, the Rollins Crew rebounded well and looked extremely impressive in early season victories over LaSalle, Purdue, Amherst and American International College. Coach U. T. Bradley combined his six returning lettermen Larry Breen, Jim Lyden, Moe Cody, Pete Benedict, Tim Morse and Don Salyer with two newcomers Bill Houston and Bob Anderson into a powerful contender for state honors.

The addition of two new racing shells, the Hugh F. McKean and the John Tiedtke, plus good water for practicing gave the oarsmen the start needed for a winning season. The top competition in Florida probably came from the strong Tampa Spartans. Possessing four boats on the water and plenty of experience, they were the biggest obstacle that Rollins paced this spring.

The high point of the campaign, as always, was the Dad Vail Regatta in Philadelphia. Having finished second for several years, the Tars went out with a great chance to win the big one for "Brad."

THE ROLLINS' VARSITY and Juniar Varsity crews line up for a long practice sessian an Lake Maitland. C. Strange.

COACH JOE AND RONNIE BROWN TALK IT OVER.

With some lusty hitting, sharp fielding and tight pitching, baseball at Rollins got off to one of its fastest starts in several years. The return of star second baseman Ron Paiva proved to be the spark to ignite the team into a top contender. At the same time, tremendous teamwork on the part of all the players enabled the Tars to gain a 24-7 mark going into the last week of play. The thirty-five game schedule arranged by Coach Joe Justice was the test of a real ball club and the team passed the test with flying colors. Highlighted by the snapping of Ohio State's twenty-two game winning streak, Rollins placed second in the Annual Baseball Week held at Harper-Shepherd Field. Other teams participating included New York University and Wake Forest.

Taking a closer look at the season, veterans Jim Johnston, Frank Willis, Boyd Coffie, Ron Paiva, Mike Cortese, Chuck Allen and Bunky Davis all had great years while solid support came from Freshmen Douglas Baxendale, Jim Cooper, Jesse Lee and Winkie Williams. An indication of the caliber of playing during the season can be cited in the game against Amherst. Collecting sixteen hits during the tilt, and four runs in the bottom of the ninth inning, the Tars came back for an 8-7 victory. This clutch playing was to become a trademark in the future Rollins' victories.

All in all, probably no other Tar Baseball team in history rounded into shape so quickly as the 1959 "nine." Completing the season with Florida Southern, the Tars shut out the Mocs 4-0 to capture the Florida State Intercollegiate Baseball title.

Rollins College can take justifiable pride in Coach Norm Copeland and his Men's and Women's Tennis teams. The men, lead by Mexican Davis Cupper, José Ochoa, posted a 15-4 record last year, while Arkansas State Women's champ Owen McHaney guided the girls to an 8-0 mark. With the exception of one loss through graduation, the men's team remained intact and was tough to beat during the rugged schedule. The Varsity men certainly had their work cut out for them as they faced such powerhouses as Miami and Presbyterian. Yes, this has been quite a spring for Norm's netters!

THE SLAMMER! TAR GOLFER DICK DIVERSI IS ON THE GREEN IN TWO

COACH DAN NYIMICZ

TAKING A BREATHER after a gaad day's warkaut is the 1959 Rollins College Golf Team. Campased af Jae Miller, Dick Diversi, Rolond Lomontogne, Bob Craig, Jay Dalan, and Bab Ross, the team is out to defend last yeor's outstanding record af an undefeated season in dual match play.

Coach Dan Nyimicz and his Rollins Golf team made quite a name for themselves last year by going through their spring schedule without a defeat. As a result, Rollins' linksters were invited to the N.C.A.A. golf tournament at Williamstown, Massachusetts, where they finished sixth and sent one man to the third round of individual play.

For the rugged 1959 schedule, it was fortunate that the entire winning squad was back again this year. Composed of Jim Curti, Bob Harrison, former Ohio State Champion Bob Ross, Ron Terpak, Joe Miller, Bob Craig, Jay Dolan, Roland Lamontagne, former Maine State titleholder Dick Diversi, Les Sladkus and Bob Lerner, it was a safe bet that Rollins would remain undefeated for the second year in a row.

A look at the schedule showed the Tars to have faced tough battles. Wisconsin, Florida, Florida State, Georgia, Jacksonville, Miami, Florida Southern, and Western Illinois furnished the dual match competition, while Rollins took on, in addition, three tournaments: the Florida Intercollegiate, the Miami Invitational, and the Southern Intercollegiate.

A look at last year's scores shows that Rollins beat the University of Wisconsin 27-3, 25-5; Florida State University 16-11, 19-8; Florida Southern College $19\frac{1}{2}$-$7\frac{1}{2}$, 19-8; University of Miami $18\frac{1}{2}$-$8\frac{1}{2}$, 17-10; University of Florida $24\frac{1}{2}$-$2\frac{1}{2}$; Georgia Tech $19\frac{1}{2}$-$7\frac{1}{2}$; University of Georgia $17\frac{1}{2}$-$9\frac{1}{2}$; Bradley University 19-2; and Northern Illinois State $24\frac{1}{2}$-$2\frac{1}{2}$.

This year's opener, again with Wisconsin, found the Tars' victory skein increased to fifteen by 23-7 and 25-5 margins. If this is any indication, it looks as if Rollins is rapidly becoming the team to watch in collegiate golf.

DETERMINATION marks the face of Bonnie MacSwan as with a last burst of enegry she reaches for the basketball, controlled by Gamma Phi, Sue Scribley.

The intramural system at Rollins provides for and instills in the various social groups a stiff competitive spirit. This system went into effect in 1935-1936 and has steadily grown stronger through the years. It initiates group as well as individual interaction.

Guided by Sara Jane Dorsey and J. P. Patton the Intramural Board governs all activities. This group consists of a representative from every group. For the Year 1958-1959 the members are Bonnie MacSwan, Alpha Phi; Owen McHaney, Chi O; Julie VanPelt, Kappa; Sue Scribner, Gamma Phi; Marily Dupres, Phi Mu; Helen Carrell, Pi Phi; Betty Van Mater, Theta; and Cam Bonfoey, Independent Women. Basketball starts the fall season, followed in the winter by tennis and softball. The year is ended by golf, volleyball, archery, and swimming.

Each group competes for the O'Brien trophy, which is awarded at the end of the year to the group that has won the most sports through a point system. At the end of each season every group is asked to submit a list of girls it feels are eligible for the varsity. In order to be considered for these varsities one must show interest, co-operation, and sportsmanship. The lists are then studied by the Intramural Board, who choose the final members. Most of the girls' varsities are honoraries, but the basketball team does play the University of Tampa, the University of Charleston in South Carolina, and enters the district championships.

During the year Rollins joins other Florida schools in Sports Days. Anyone may participate and enter in any or all of the fields. The schedule normally includes tennis, sailing, softball, and archery; but it varies with the school.

Finally, for those excelling in the different sports and exhibiting interest, co-operation, and sportsmanship, there is an honorary known as the "R" Club. This is the highest achievement that a woman can attain in the sports field at Rollins.

The 1958-1959 Intramural season again saw the perennial rivals, Sigma Nu and X Club battling it out for athletic honors. The return of flag football as the autumn sport found the Sigma Nu's copping the championship with a superbly coached and talented team. They finished the season undefeated with only a 6-6 tie with the Independents to mar an otherwise perfect record. The surprise of the campaign was the unforseen strength of the Indies. All Freshmen, they took second place honors behind the strong arm of Jesse Lee and the hard running of Bruce Kennard and Winkie Williams. The remaining positions at the season's end found X Club holding down third place with Lambda Chi, Delta Chi, and K.A. following in that order.

Winter term opened a basketball season that was to be one of the best in years. Again the Snakes proved themselves worthy of first place behind the fine shooting and playmaking of Dave Hewitson and Jim Johnston. The runner-up, X Club, gave the champs a real battle, losing by 55-41 and 43-42 margins. Probably the most surprising team of the season was third place Delta Chi. Led by George Fehl, the Delts were the only team to beat Sigma Nu, thus ending the Snakes' two-year victory string.

IM Tennis saw the X Club having the greatest over-all team strength with the number one and two men, Barry Barnes and Gerald Kein playing outstandingly. Larry Lavalle and Ken Tall guided Sigma Nu to second place laurels after coming from behind to beat third place Delta Chi 4-2. Fine individual efforts, in addition to those mentioned above, were by Delta Chi's Bob Bunim, Lambda Chi's Dale Ingmanson, Independent's Jim Levy, and K.A.'s Chuck Berger.

A spring term battle was shaping up at press time between Lambda Chi and X Club for Volley Ball honors and Delta Chi and X Club for the Softball championship.
